1 JUDGE BISSELL: I now turn to the opinion
2 regarding William Faccone.

3 For that purpose we will reopen the 4 record for a separate transcript in Mr. William 5 Faccone's case under docket number 07-6013.

6 I note once again, as I think I should 7 at the head of every transcript, that I am issuing an 8 oral opinion pursuant to Civil Rule 52.1 to be 9 submitted to me for revision as that rule
10 contemplates. As finalized and filed this transcript 11 will constitute the "written report" required under 12 paragraph 7 of the Order of Reference to a Special 13 Master. I am abiding by the provisions set forth in 14 that Order of Reference and incorporating the 15 requirements of the Special Master Agreement
16 regarding the duties and powers of the Special 17 Master.

18 Furthermore, as the guiding principles
19 of law in this matter, I incorporate by reference the 20 prior jury instructions as set forth in the Walker 21 and Mejias charges which have been supplied to me, to 22 the extent applicable to the issues and proofs in the 23 case at hand.

24 As to William Faccone, he recounts a
25 beating at the transcript of January 29th, 2008,

February 13, 2008

Page 4

1 appearing at pages 196 through 200. But the 2 continuity of back pain which he ascribes to this 3 event without ever having gone to a doctor, either
4 before or after his release from incarceration,
5 together with an assertion that he takes regularly 15
6 Advils a day, is just not credible. It's an effort, 7 frankly, to exaggerate the permanency and severity of 8 his supposed injuries. Indeed, it casts a shadow 9 over the credibility and weight to be accorded to his 10 testimony as a whole.

11 He asserted a number of cuts on his 12 face as a result of this incident, none of which were 13 stitched. He's never said he had any cosmetic work 14 done. However, I did not detect any scarring on his 15 face and he was sitting right next to me, nor does 16 the record reflect that that was asserted or that my 17 attention was drawn to the same. I find it unlikely 18 that that would be so, if he were beaten as he 19 states.

20 He talks about having been beaten with 21 leaded gloves and large flashlights. However, I
22 found the testimony of Officer Roberts, appearing 23 (perhaps as well as elsewhere) at pages 124 through 24 126 of the transcript as credible when he states that 25 leaded gloves are not permitted in the units. Leaded

February 13, 2008

1 gloves, presumably weighted, are not permitted in the 2 units and large flashlights are not carried into the 3 units.

4 He mentioned that there were one or 5 more flashlights available, my recollection is in 6 central control, for necessary use. But I find 7 Plaintiff's recounting of having been beaten with a 8 large flashlight is not credible.

9 There was an inconsistency between Mr.
10 Faccone's testimony here in court and his prior 11 answers to interrogatories and on deposition which, 12 although also somewhat time removed from the event, 13 were certainly closer to it than his day here in 14 court. His interrogatory answers had no mention
15 about any orange being thrown nor did it name Officer
16 Roberts by name. Indeed, the deposition stated that 17 Mr. Mitchell and not Mr. Roberts threw the orange.

18 There are discrepancies with regard to 19 the date of the visit by Ombudsman Quilles and 20 whether he did or did not show her his facial 21 injuries.

22 At the deposition he stated that the 23 assault was some two weeks after the lockdown started
24 rather than three to four days. Once again, one 25 might excuse the differences in recollection of that

February 13, 2008

1 sort, but he was really quite insistent on that time
2 frame here.

3 Frankly, that had some significance
4 because through the testimony of Officer Roberts, it
5 was established that certain officers who visit a 6 unit such as that in which Mr. Faccone was housed
7 signed in and, indeed, signed in in red. And there 8 are no indications on the dates in question that 9 either Roberts or Mitchell had signed in to that 10 unit.

11 I do not find it credible that somehow 12 or other they would have snuck into that unit to 13 single out Mr. Faccone or to deal with what may have 14 been an incident in which they thought he was 15 involved without signing in. They risked more 16 dangers by doing that than they could possibly solve.

17 Accordingly, there is a real doubt cast
18 upon whether either Roberts or Mitchell was even 19 there at the incident. The transcript of January 20 29th at pages 118 through 122 is among the sources of 21 the conclusion.

22 I also observed the demeanor of the 23 witnesses before me. I'm not saying that Mr. Faccone
24 just oozed the aura of a liar, but as I said there
25 are some things in his testimony which I do not find

February 13, 2008

1 credible.

2 I felt that Mr. Roberts demeanor on the 3 witness stand was straightforward, but at the same 4 time he was not defensive and did not have any of 5 that sort of aura of police infallibility or 6 my-way-or-the-highway sort of approach that I have 7 seen all too often in the past, but not through him.
8 So I found his testimony credible on the significant 9 events. I also considered the testimony of Mr.
10 Capiello, through his deposition, introduced as 11 Exhibit P-15. While he supports the testimony of the 12 Plaintiff regarding the presence of Mitchell and 13 Roberts and the use of flashlights, that evidence has 14 been impeached for the reasons set forth above. A 15 supposedly contemporaneous journal was referred to in 16 the record but not introduced into evidence as such;
17 therefore, that added little to the evidence
18 presented by Plaintiff.

19 Finally, although not every item of 20 evidence has been discussed in this opinion/report, 21 all evidence presented to the Special Master was 22 reviewed and considered.

23 Accordingly, my report as generated
24 here is that Mr. Faccone has failed to establish a 25 cause of action for a violation of any of his Eighth

February 13, 2008

1 Amendment rights. I recommend in this report that 2 the District Court enter a verdict of no cause for 3 action.
